

Daniel Leeds

251 E 13th Street, Arcata, CA 95521 | (831)239-9464 | grouchygreen@gmail.com

Objective

I am interested in acquiring work as an agricultural consultant. I am considering extending my education to get an MBA so to work more good.

Skills

- Horticultural: Soil analysis and design, hydroponic crop production, green house design and construction, plant nutrition analysis, pest management, nutrient solution design, water quality analysis, aqua phonic system design and management, organic solutions and supplemental lighting solutions.
- Water sampling: Use and maintenance of professional equipment and systems, office and clerical work, customer interaction and field work.
- Computer: Microsoft Excel, Auto CAD, Adobe Photoshop, some C++, Google Documents, Dreamweaver.

Job Experience

- On call employee for Water Sampling Services, Soquel, California, (831)465-TEST, which installs, manages and tests public and private water systems in Santa Cruz, Monterey, and Santa Clara counties.
- Participated in the formation, promotion and operation of the Monterey Antique Show and Vintage Market.

Education

- Humboldt State University: Environmental Resource Engineering. Currently taking Intro to Environmental Engineering, Chemistry (II), and Engineering Dynamics.
- Cabrillo College, Aptos, California: 96 units including courses in Soil Science and Management, Hydroponic Crop Production, Irrigation Systems and Installation, Physics for Engineering Majors (A, B, C), Chemistry (I), Engineering Materials, Statics, Surveying, Calculus (I, II, III), Differential Equations, Geology, Public Speaking, Jazz Appreciation, and many other UC/CSU transferable general education courses.

Objective

I am interested in acquiring work as an agricultural consultant. I am considering extending my education past a bachelor's degree to include a MBA.

Job Experience

- On call employee, Water Sampling Services, Soquel, California Aug. 2005 – Dec. 2015
Which installs, manages and tests public and private water systems in Santa Cruz, Monterey, and Santa Clara counties.
- Participated in the formation, promotion and operation of the Monterey Antique Show and Vintage Market. May 2012 – Nov. 2015

Skills

- Horticultural
Soil analysis and design, hydroponic crop production, green house design and construction, plant nutrition analysis, pest management, nutrient solution design, water quality analysis, aqua phonic system design and management, organic solutions and supplemental lighting solutions.
- Water sampling
Use and maintenance of professional equipment and systems, office and clerical work, customer interaction and field work.
- Computer
Microsoft Excel, Auto CAD, Adobe Photoshop, some C++, Google Documents, Dreamweaver.

Education

- Humboldt State University, Arcata, California Expected Graduation Fall 2017
Environmental Resource Engineering.
Currently taking Intro to Environmental Engineering, Chemistry (II), and Engineering Dynamics.
- Cabrillo College, Aptos, California Sep. 2007 – Dec. 2015
96 units including courses in Soil Science and Management, Hydroponic Crop Production, Irrigation Systems and Installation, Physics for Engineering Majors (A, B, C), Chemistry (I), Engineering Materials, Statics, Surveying, Calculus (I, II, III), Differential Equations, Geology, Public Speaking, Jazz Appreciation, and many other UC/CSU transferable general education courses.