

Marissa Woolsey

Phone: 949-838-5780 E-Mail: marissa2012@gmail.com

Experience:

Irvine Ranch Conservancy: 2012-present

- At the Irvine Ranch Conservancy I am currently a land steward, trail guide, trail boss, volunteer
- I help lead hikes, remove invasive plants, and educate the public on environment conservation

Insomniac Events: 2015 (seasonal)

- I volunteered as ground control for their event Nocturnal Wonderland (safety officer)

Wild Rivers: 2010-2011

Lifeguard

Unitarian Universalist Congregation: 2008-2012

- At the congregation I worked as a nursery worker

Woodbridge Tennis Club: 2014-2015

- Worked with computers
- Answered phone calls

Pageant of the Masters: Summer of July-August (2014)

- I was an usher

Babysitting: 2013-present

- Ages one month to six years old

Education:

University High school: 2008-2012

I graduated with my High school diploma. I played tennis all four years

Irvine Valley College: 2012-2015

I was a double major in Environmental Engineering.

Humboldt State University: 2016-present

I am currently enrolled in Humboldt State University as Environmental Resource Engineering major, minor in Scuba. Clubs: SWE (society of women engineers), EWB (engineers without borders), ERESA

(Environmental resource engineering student association)

Skills:

- CPR -Handling Money -Customer Service -Team player -Working with children
- Computer programs: Word, Excel, Power-point -Answering phone calls -Athletic

References: information on request

- Mary Halunka (employer)
- Katelynn Riva (Unitarian Universalist Employer)
- Maralyn (Pageant of the Masters)
- Aaron Davenport (Woodbridge Tennis)
- Kyle Garcia (employer)
- Dena Hayes (employer)