

INDIAN LAND CESSIONS

Between 1887 and 1934, another two-thirds of what had been Indian territory in 1880 passed into the hands of white owners - directly as a result of the Dawes Act.